NARRATIVE

Unit 2 was Northbound on Vernon Rd. slowing to make a left turn into 1106 Vernon Rd. Unit 1 said she did not see the blinker because of the sun and was unable to stop to avoid the collision. Unit 1 struck Unit 2 from behind. The driver of unit 2 was complaining of back pain. She said that she had a preexisting back injury and that the collision just made the pain more.

I was driving down Vernon Rd, headed to my house on Lyndon Parkway, when I came to a sudden stop. A lady was supposedly turning didn't see her blinker on. It was very sunny and was wearing my prescription glasses. I didn't see her blinker on and when I went to stop it was too late and ~~hit~~ hit her from behind. I got out of the car right away to see if she was ok. She was but shaken up, as was I. I called the police immediately and my insurance company. This was my first accident.

to yell at me saying it was my fault. She hit me, I asked her for her insurance & Drivers License. She walked away and made another call. I think was to 911. I Did not ride in the Ambulance. I had my Aunt take me into ER. Officer Ron Brooks was able to give me the Lady's information and insurance information. My Aunt drove past the incident site on my way home from the ER. and the Speed Limit sign said 30 mph posted just after my where my left turn was. I was told By ER that I had 3 bulging discs in my neck, Cervical Strain and Lumbar Strain.
